

precisely so that it clarifies you are talking about the tort claims and you are talking about the parts above $5,000, you are changing, check out the miscellaneous claims because as that amendment is there, I am not sure whether it does or doesn't apply. And all I would suggest, and don't anybody get offended, is you pass over this, and those who are interested in it, Senator Chambers, and whoever, maybe could get together and see if they want to move ahead with the bill at all at least get some precise stuff in there and get the exact facts on what claims you are talking about. That is all I am suggesting.

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Lamb.

SENATOR LAMB: Well, Mr. President and members, I am under the impression that Senator Lundy and Senator Beutler had essentially the same amendment up there as Senator Chambers has and that to those who object to Senator Chambers' amendment I would only say that you are still going to have to have those same three people. Those same three people can do the same thing. It is really not changing the situation with Senator Chambers' amendment because those same three people have control and I guess I don't understand Senator DeCamp's problems with it. It seems to me that if there is a problem, we certainly can change it on Select File, so I would recommend that we adopt Senator Chambers' amendment and advance the bill.

PRESIDENT: Senator Chambers. You are entitled to close, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, the way the amendment is drafted it says "any claim" which means whatever type, whatever amount, whatever nature of claim comes before that board could be approved by a majority of the board members. So I don't think there is any problem with the way the amendment is drafted. Obviously, when it goes to the bill drafter, the bill drafter will take the section that I am attempting to amend and draw lines through the language that is to be deleted and put in the new language and underline it so that it is clear precisely which words will have to be changed. But I don't think anybody can misunderstand what it is that I am saying. I am saying that any claim of any type or variety that comes before that board will be decided by a majority of the members. For Senator Wesely, I am not saying the
